Georgia FFA Members & Chapters Earn Top Honors at the 82nd National FFA Convention

INDIANAPOLIS – The Georgia FFA Association had 7 national winners, and was recognized for the largest membership growth in the nation at the 82nd National FFA Convention last week in Indianapolis.

Audrey Davis of the Bainbridge FFA (Agricultural Education); Bradley Weaver of the Dawson County FFA in Dawsonville (Agriculture Sales - Entrepreneurship); Staten Levings of the Echols County FFA in Statenville (Forest Management & Products) and Courtney Curlin of the Lowndes County FFA in Valdosta (Emerging Agriculture Technology) were each named national proficiency award winners for the success they earned in their Supervised Agricultural Experience (SAE) programs. Georgia had fourteen national proficiency finalists who competed at the convention. Only four students from across the nation are named National Finalists in each proficiency area.

Newt Gilman of the East Jackson FFA chapter in Commerce was named the national winner in the FFA Creed Career Development Event (CDE). Gilman bested 43 other participants in three rounds of competition to be named the national winner. In each round, Gilman delivered the FFA Creed to a panel of judges, and answered oral questions about the FFA Creed. Gilman's agricultural education teachers are Mr. Greg Gilman, Ms. Taylor Ginn and Mr. Todd Shultz.

Kalie Hall of the Franklin County FFA was named the top individual in the national Livestock Evaluation CDE; and Trevor Correia and Josh Barron, also of the Franklin County FFA, were named the national winners in Division 4 of the Environmental Science category in the National Agriscience Fair. The agricultural education teachers at Franklin County are Mr. Gary Minyard, Mr. Owen Thomason, and Mr. Cale Watkins.

Other CDE highlights from Georgia included the Perry FFA placing 2nd in the Nursery/Landscape CDE (Nick Wood, 6th place individual; Thomas Burnham, 7th place individual; & Spencer Freeman, 8th place individual); the West Laurens FFA placing 2nd in the Agricultural Sales CDE (Benjamin Woodard, 4th place individual); the Franklin County FFA finished 2nd in the Floriculture CDE (Ally Eavenson, 3rd place individual); Holly Ward of the Seminole County FFA placed 5th in the Job Interview CDE; the Franklin County FFA placed 5th in the Livestock Evaluation CDE; Andrea Sweeny (4th) and Rachel King (10th) of the Putnam County FFA earned individual honors in the Environmental Science & Natural Resources CDE; and the Banks County (Poultry), Franklin County (Dairy Evaluation), Ware County (Forestry) all earned national Gold CDE rankings.

The Georgia FFA Association was recognized as the state Association with the largest membership growth in 2008-2009, with an increase of over 1,400 members. This marks the 11th consecutive year that the Georgia FFA has increased in membership.

The 2008-2009 National FFA Officer team presided over the Convention. Serving as the 2008-2009 National Southern Region Vice-President was Regina Holliday of the East Laurens FFA. Holliday presided over the 2nd general session on Thursday, October 22, and presented her retiring officer address, entitled "Something That Matters," on Friday, October 23. Holliday awarded the Honorary American Degree to her parents, and recognized her agricultural education teachers and state staff for their support of her FFA career.

Johnny Jones of the Toombs County FFA Alumni chapter was elected to serve on the National FFA Alumni Council. Jones will serve a 3-year term as the Southern Region Representative on the national Council, representing the states of Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Puerto Rico. Jones currently serves as President-Elect of the Georgia FFA Alumni Council.

Kaitlyn Cass (Gilmer County) performed as part of the National FFA band; and TJ Cochran (Pepperell), Jarrett Fail (Southeast Bulloch) and Debra Smith (Jackson County) each performed in the national FFA talent program.

More than 53,000 attended the 82nd National FFA Convention. The theme for the convention was Lead Out Loud. A complete set of results and a variety of highlights from the 82nd National FFA Convention can be found on the National FFA website at www.ffa.org/convention/2009/awards.cfm.

There are more than 500,000 FFA members nationwide. The Georgia Association has over 29,000 members, making it the 3rd largest Association in the nation. The FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success, through agricultural education.
